Bruce and Edge Assail Volstead Act.

By ALBERT W. FOX Advocates of modification of the prohibition law opened their case friendly tip-if in doubt take your yesterday at the opening day of the wet and dry battle before the Means subcommittee of the Senate judiciary committee. After 2 hours and settling the Brookhart case, has 40 minutes of testimony a truce was called until 10 o'clock today, with Lincoln C. Andrews, prohibition diector, on the stand.

The features of the initial hearing, apart from the incidents which added zest to the proceedings, were the following:

This point made by Gen. Andrews was in support of his theory that the Federal government should concentrate its enforcement activities in trying to dry up the source of liquor supplies and breaking up the organized traffic in illicit liquor. To the States would be left the burden of handling local enforcement, according to this policy.

"In that way I feel we would win the approval of the whole community," he said.

Gen. Andrews was called by the antiprohibitionists as their first government witness. But Senator Means, chairman of the subcommittee, hastened to state for the record that Mr. Andrews must not be regarded as taking sides. be regarded as taking sides one

The prohibition director proved good witness. At times he hesitated about giving direct answers to embarrassing questions asked by Julian Codman, Massachusett lawyer, who represents the American Federation of Labor and other organizations and is assisting Senators Edge, Edwards and Bruce in presenting their case. But, on the whole, Mr. Andrews spoke with a degree of frankness which impressed all the committee members He was singularly at ease and ap parently endeavored to be helpful to both sides in supplying informa

There was some delay in getting the hearings started, owing to the crowd which clamoured for places in the relatively small room, 224 in the Senate Office building, and ow ing to the preliminaries which in volved motion pictures of individual stars in the investigation, close-up and pictures of the committee in ac tion. Cameras were everywhere, it seemed, but unoccupied chairs were scarce, and for some time there was young and old, were in evidence.

Gen. Andrews was spied in a seat n the front row and was called up to the committee table to pose in the pictures. Then Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Antisaloon league, was called up for his share in the publicity. It was 20 minutes past 10 before Senator testimony.

Weathersfield Prison, Conn., uesday, April 6 (By A. P.) .-Gerald Chanman, notorious robber who waged a bitter fight until the end to escape the noose for the murder of a New Britain policeman, died on Connecticut's new hanging machine early today.

The machine was sprung at 12:04 o'clock and Chapman was officially pronounced dead at 13:13 a. m.

Calm and unmoved to the end, Chapman, whose real name was George Chartres, the son of a respectable family, walked quietly to his place in the blue chalk circle on the floor where the noose was adjusted. A few moments later his life which had encompassed some of the most sensational crimes of the past decade was ended.

No Crucifix Displayed.

He died without the consolation of resting his last glance on a crucifix. Father Michael P. Barry, the spiritual adviser of his last weeks on earth, accompanied the notorious the last four hours alone with him in the death cell. Father Barry did not explain why he did not carry a crucifix, according to custom.

The witnesses took their seats shortly before Chapman entered the the five feet of water and felt the death chamber, but the medical examiner and prison physician moved over to the corner and stood beside the warden. There was a moment's delay only when the door of the chamber across the hall opened as Chapman, with a guard on either side, came out, followed by Father Barry and other guards.

Glances at Witnesses The priest walked to the side of the room. Chapman uttered no sound. He looked quickly around. His eyes swept first the group in the warden's corner, then the witness on the benches and finally rested on the right-hand corner. where the enclosure for the hang-

SERVICES TO BE HELD AT TOMB OF PEARY

House managers looked warily Exercises Will Mark Seven on the government employes' re-tirement bill submitted by the civil teenth Anniversary of Disservice committee yesterday, and there were suggestions that its proposed cost to the government might have to be trimmed further.

Estimated costs submitted by Chairman Lehlbach on the 45 divisor plan totalled $54,129,616 annually, of which the government's share would be $24,187,919, and the employes' $29,941,697. The government's contribution to the present plan is approximately $18,-000,000 annually, so the liberalized retirement would add only about $6,000,000.

The bill reported by the committee uses the divisor 40, which would increase these figures, Mr. Lehlbach pointed out, adding that no figures are available on the 40 divisor plan.

The bill provides for optional retirement at the ages of 60, 62 and 65, the latter age to govern the general run of departmental employes. Railway mail clerks, mechanics and laborers could retire and a Sixte sould of sellployes. Railway mail clerks, me-chanics and laborers could retire at 60 years, and mail carriers at 62. Cost to Workers Increased

As already reported, the employes' contribution is increased from 2½ to 4 per cent.
The provisions of the retirement act are also extended to cover employes in the office of the recorder of deeds, as well as Panama Canal workers.

The government contribution at this time is necessitated, Mr. Lehlbach reported, because of the so-called deficiency costs. These ac-crue because of the number of employes who retire in the earlier operation of the law without hav-ing long contributed to its support, or in some instances without hav-ing contributed to it at all. This or in some instances without hav-ing contributed to it at all. This condition will not always exist, he pointed out, asserting that it is fair to assume that retirement will in time become self sustaining.

Urges Action Now.

The problem must be met and must be met now, he said. He recommended that the government start in 1928 to make annual appropriations to take care of its obligations. There is no need of an appropriation now, he said. House managers plan to study the bill before assigning it a place on the calendar. Upon their decision turns its fate. The bill as reported provides a scale which will make it possible for an employe after 30 years service and with a salary of $1,600 for 10 years presalary of $1,600 for 10 years pre-ceding his retirement to receive an annuity of $1,200.

PLANES PLACED ABOARD FOR FLIGHT ABOUT POLE

King's Bay, Spitzbergen, Is First Destination; Base to Be Established.

New York, April 5 (By A. P.).— The Byrd arctic expedition started from Brooklyn navy yard today for the frozen North and the land of he midnight sun.

The steamship Chantier sailed after Commander Richard E. Byrd and the 54 members of the expedition, aided by bluejackets from the navy yard, had labored at high speed to stow below decks the two airplanes with which the explorers plan to fly over the north pole. A huge throng cheered the expedition on its way. The navy yard band played "The Star-Spangled Banner" and "Auld Lang Syne," and ves-sels in the harbor, with whistle and siren, paid parting respects to the wayfarers. A humble, but memory-stirring witness to the Chantier's departure was the former steamship

MENCKEN IS ARRESTED FOR SELLING MAGAZINE FOR MEXICAN CATHOLICS

Bay State to Be Tested in Boston Court.

Boston, Mass., April 5 (By A. P.).—The P.).—Henry L. Mencken, editor of the American Mercury, today submitted to arrest on Boston Common for the sale of his magazine, barred from the State, to "fight such predatory organizations as that of J. Frank Chase." Chase is secretary of the Watch and Ward society, and it was on his complaint that the magazine was ordered suppressed.

Mencken was so enthusiastically greeted by the crowd which attended the advertised sale that it was with great difficulty and after 15 minutes that Chase was able to push his way to the editor's side, with the aid of several burly policemen, to make the purchase necessary for prosecution. The crowd followed the prisoner, his counsel, and the officers' through the streets to police headquarters. The arraignment took little time. Mencken pleaded not guilty to possessing obscene literature and to making a sale. He was released on bail for trial tomorrow morning. It was agreed that the facts of sale.

The Pope's letter recalled his also. making a sale. He was released on bail for trial tomorrow morning. It was agreed that the facts of sale be admitted without witnesses and that the verdict be based upon the article objected to as obscene. Mr. Mencken, with Arthur Garfield Hayes, of the American Civil Liberties Union, came here this morning. Mencken's first step was to get from the city a license to vend newspapers and periodicals on the streets. He then notified Mr. Chase that he intended to sell a copy of the American Mercury at 2 o'clock at the corner of Park and Tremont at the corner of Park and Tremont

The suits are an outgrowth of the trials of the former governor on charges of accepting bribes for paroles and pardons which followed ness of the publishers of the magazine. He charged that newsdealers had been intimidated and threatened by the secretary before any legal action had been taken to prevent its sale.

PRESIDENT IS DEFENDED AGAINST TARIFF CHARGE

Dennis Tells Senate Committee Coolidge Has Not Packed Commission.

SAYS CHANGES NEEDED

(By the Associated Press.) Having recovered from the ill-ness that forced him to leave the stand last Thursday, Commissioner Dennis, Democrat, on the Tariff Commission, resumed his testimony yesterday on the operations of the tariff law before the Senate investigating committee.

The commissioner explained that

Vice Chairman of Tariff Commission Dennis told investigating committee the only solution of tariff problem was a complete house-cleaning and substitution of men of entirely different types from present membership.

The commissioner explained that his inability to continue his testimony last week was due to a bilious attack and not a nervous disorder as then reported. He defended President Coolidge against the charge of "packing" the commission, declaring that the President had appointed only three mem-The corn belt farm relief bill dent had appointed only three memwas indorsed before agricultural bers of the present body, Commiscommittee by representatives of sioners Brossard and Baldwin and

He added that he was responsible for the appointment of Commis-sioner Baldwin, having recommended him to the President, although recently he withdrew his indorse-ment. He declined to elaborate on the statement other than to say that Commissioner Baldwin had "contributed nothing to the commission.

Mr. Dennis again offered to re sign if his presence interfered with a reorganization of the commission, which he said was not functioning properly as now constituted. Men like Herbert Hoover and Owen D. young, he thought, should be ap-pointed to the body.

Attacking the method used in obtaining production costs on which flexible tariff recommendations are made, Commissioner Dennis de-clared that even if they were com-piled accurately, he believed "a very great harm is being done our national life by ill considered recommendations based simply on matched production costs.'

He suggested the wholesale price of a commodity as a basis on which to compute production costs, in-stead of the present practice of sending out a staff of experts to find out the costs.

Against Using Rank

Senator Caraway endeavored at the outset to explain in detail the procedure by which a majority of procedure by which a majority of the privilege and elections commit-tee reached the conclusion that Mr. Steck had been elected to the seat now held by Senator Brookhart, but he had not proceeded far until the spirited interchanges, which fea-tured the session, got under way. From then on, it was a running, rapid fire debate, with numerous senators participating, the attend-ance on the floor being much larger than usual.

Assails Legal Viewpoint.

When opportunity was given for extended remarks, Senator Caraway insisted that Senator Brookhart had no right to his sea under any interpretation of the law or of intent of the voters, and said that if legal technicalities were to be resorted to, the majority of the voters would be disfranchised. He questioned the propriety of Senator Brookhart making personal appeals to members of the Senate, and contrasted this with the conduct of Mr. Steck, who had not approached a single

An Appreciation

THE management of the Mayflower find it desirable at this time to express their grateful appreciation of the constant and ever expanding support which has been bestowed upon it by the citizens of Washington and its visitors.

CASTER of last year came shortly after our opening and we operated at less than one-half our capacity. Since that date the volume of our patronage has steadily increased, culminating in an overwhelming deluge this Easter season. Every room and apartment was filled and we were obliged to disappoint hundreds of applicants who had not made previous reservations.

THE management will justify the confidence of the citizens and guests of Washington by continuing its policy of operating the Mayflower up to the highest standard of hotel management to be found in the world.

BITTERLY CRITICIZES PROSECUTOR ALCORN

Remarks Are Resented by One Member, Who Forces Change in Tactics.

Wethersfield, Conn., April 5 (By A. P.).—The board of pardons this afternoon unanimously rejected Gerald Chapman's application for commutation of sentence to life im-

His impassioned plea, made in a low, penetrating voice, fre-quently interrupted by a wrack-ing cough, failed to impress the Connecticut board of pardons which he earnestly addressed for 32 minutes this afternoon in an effort to get a commutation to life imprison-

Immediately after receiving the decision of the board, Judge Groehl approached Gov. Trumbull with a plea for a reprieve in order that he (Groehl) might have the oppor-tunity to gather the evidence which he claims will alter the entire aspect of the case.

The attorney's request was flatly rejected by the governor, who told him that the courts had passed on the evidence and that there nothing new in the affidavits that would induce him to grant another

Drown in Lake Erie

Amherstburg, Ontario, April 5
(By A. P.) —Local police expressed the conviction today that three unidentified men, known to have attempted to cross Lake Erie with a cargo of liquor last Wednesday, were drowned. Wreckage washed ashore near Bar Point has been identified as belonging to the yacht Babe Silverwood, of Toledo. An effort is being made in Toledo to find identified as belonging to the yacht Babe Silverwood, of Toledo. An ef-fort is being made in Toledo to find the yacht's owner.

WHAT CAN BE ACCOMPLISHED?

Based upon the resolution of Senator Bruce, of Maryland, which proposes to amend the eighteenth amendment, a committee of the Senate will devote several hours each day for the next two weeks to "hearings" on the subject of the prohibition amendment and the Volstead law. The purpose of the "wets" is to secure an amendment to the Volstead law to permit the sale of wines and beer. That the most radical one of them dreams that it will be possible to secure the repeal of the eighteenth amendment is not to be imagined. The eighteenth amendment is as firmly affixed to the Constitution as Pike's Peak is affixed to the face of the State of Colorado.

The agitation now being carried on in so many of the States, and the apparent strong sentiment in favor of amendment to the Volstead law as shown by the recently conducted newspaper polls, encourages some persons to hope for more liberality in the legal interpretation of the meaning of that word "intoxicating." But it should not be forgotten that the United States Supreme Court has set the seal of its approval on the action of Congress in fixing the alcoholic content of nonintoxicating beverages at one-half of 1 per cent, and until the court shall pass upon the direct question as to how the intoxicating effect of liquids of greater content of alcohol may be determined, it is doubtful if even a direct permission by Congress for the manufacture and sale of beer and wines would accomplish the purpose of the opponents of the Volstead law.

But no matter what the outcome of the hearings in the Senate may be, the "liquor question" will continue to furnish the principal topic for discussion in the coming campaign for Congress in every important city of the land.

It takes a mighty convenient memory to remember that boys once were better than they are now

A BUSTED TRUST.

It did not require a great deal of time for the United States district court in Baltimore to put an end to the scheme for the creation of a vast trust to control the food supply of the country. A "consent decree," which dissolves the Ward Food Products Corporation, was entered on Saturday, just 60 days after the news of the proposed merger of the three biggest baking companies of the world was first announced. The court found that the creation of the trust; as contemplated by the philanthropists who conceived the idea, would violate both the Sherman antitrust law and the Clayton act.

In announcing the action of the court. Attorney General Sargent explains that the outstanding feature of the decree is the complete dissolution of the Ward Food Products Corporation, which was organized on January 30 with an authorized capital of 20,000,000 shares with a "potential" value of $2,000,000,000. The decree also wipes out a proposed issue of government, and a conference was called.

SECRECY IN SENATE VOTES.

The Senate has been eating up time in discussing the question whether or not there should be some relaxation of the rule of secrecy in voting on executive nominations. vote on the nomination of Thomas L. Woodlock to be interstate commerce commissioner led to the discussion. He was confirmed Some senators are anxious to have the public know how they voted on the Woodlock nomination, and others wish to keep the vote secret. One senator, Mr. Overman, of North Carolina, informed the Senate that his vote had been misrepresented in North Carolina, and that he had not hesitated to telegraph that he had voted against Mr. Woodlock. According to the rules, Senator Overman is subject to expulsion for revealing the sacred secrets of the Senate.

Senator Norris, of Nebraska, observed that Overman's statement was commendable for its honesty and courage; but that nevertheless he had committed an offense against the rules which, if punished, would result in his expulsion. But he added that no one would think of enforcing the rules against Mr. Overman, who, he said, was "one of the most respected members of this body, whose judgment as a lawyer and as a statesman everybody respects, and whose personality everybody admires.

The Senate can easily solve the problem before it. Let every senator emulate the statesman from North Carolina, and earn the respect of his colleagues for his judgment and character; and then he can freely ignore a rule which, while salutary in some respects, becomes silly when applied to a senator who wishes to disclose his individual vote.

Most of the world's big jobs are held by men who don't care a whoop what the ladies think of Valentino.

THE FRENCH BUDGET.

The 1926 budget of the French government as established by the vote in the senate and chamber calls for a revenue of about 41.919. 000,000 francs and an expenditure of about 41,337,000,000 francs. The franc is now worth a trifle over 3 cents in gold. Thus the 1926 budget calls for receipts of approximately $1,500,000,000 and expenditures of about $1,-425,000,000. Obviously these figures in dollars will vary as the gold value of the franc varies.

The most important items in the additional revenues voted are: A general increase of 30 per cent in the customs tariff on all imports. including wheat, coffee, cocoa, sugar and agricultural implements; a 2 per cent tax on the business turnover (a sales tax practically); an individual poll tax; an increase in the price of tobacco, and an increase in the tax on alcohol.

Some of the Paris newspapers call this new taxation "revolutionary;" yet if France had taken this course long ago, and imposed high war and post-war taxes instead of borrowing more money and issuing more paper money in large quantities, the franc would have been higher and the French government and people would have been far better off today.

France was headed toward hopeless paper currency inflation, resulting in ruin. The experience of Germany did not appear to alarm the French people, and they plunged ahead with recklessness, impairing their credit and facing disaster. It is hoped that the financial crisis in France is over. If so, the franc will begin to rise steadily.

TO SAVE "OLD IRONSIDES."

The board of education will be asked at its meeting tomorrow to designate an "Old Ironsides Hour" in the schools of the District, during which the project for saving the old frigate Constitution will be laid before the school children, and their contributions solicited. School children throughout the United States are asked to make up a fund sufficient to save the gallant old ship from destruction.

The Constitution is a symbol of patriotism The story of its sturdy defense of the American flag is one of the most glorious chapters in the history of the United States. This story should be known by every American child, and every child should be privileged to give a penny or a dime toward the preservation of "Old Ironsides." The board of education should by all means make an exception to its rule prohibiting the solicitation of funds from school children, and should gladly grant the hour in which school children may be told the story of the Constitution. No hour could be more usefully employed than in inculcating into childish minds the lessons of patriotism and valor that cluster about the name of "Old

This is a "league of nations" which has no interest in politics. Its task is to provide a standard official crop report, showing for all countries the areas seeded, the condition of growing crops, harvest prospects and actual yields. This information is supplemented with statistics on live stock, forestry, feeds and fertilizers. In fact, information on every possible phase of agricultural industry is gathered and distributed by the permanent force which is housed in a handsome building provided through the munificence of King Victor Emmanuel III. This building is located in the grounds of the Villa Umberto I, in Rome, and it is here that the general assembly will meet on the 19th instant. It was opened for the first time in May, 1908, and is the official headquarters of the permanent committee, the members of which reside in Rome and repre sent 63 countries and colonies.

Besides statistical matter relating to agricultural and forestry products in every country of the world, the institute maintains a complete library of such information, as well as a vast amount of data concerning legislation enacted year by year affecting land tenure, the economic and social status of the farm family, the production and trade in staples and the measures taken in protecting crops against

FIXING SALARIES.

Unexpectedly the United States board of tax appeals has made a ruling practically fixing the salary of the president of a corporation for purposes of tax exemptions. Unless the courts overthrow this ruling it may stand as the first case of government salary fixing since Mr. McAdoo fixed the salaries of all railroad em-

Former Chairman Page, of the United States tariff commission, is the first man to reveal just where the so-called flexible tariff sections came from, and under what circumstances. He states that the matter was first suggested at a conference in the White House when President Harding was executive. Mr. Page states that fear was expressed that foreign manufacturers would swamp the American markets because of low foreign wages and low rates of exchange, and that some substitute for the American valuation system should be adopted, giving the tariff commission power to investigate and the President to change

ANOTHER STOCK SEASON

Strange about a stock company: After awhile, each of its members ecome as of a family. Or is it strange? Last night at the National theater, with what might be termed the home-coming of the National Theater Players, the old playhouse took on the atmosphere of home, sweet, home—a family gathering.

Like all such reunions, gatherings of the clans, there were absentees—and new-comers; somewhat in the nature of brides and grooms bringing partners to the

In choosing Easter Monday as the day and date of its second an-nual venture before the towns-folk. Steve Cochran, youthful theatrical entrepreneur, who originated the idea and sponsored the National Theater Players, selected the one best bet of the season. In offering "The Alarm Clock," an adaptation ade by Avery Hopwood from the rench farce of Maurice Hennequin ad Romain Coolus, as the piece de sistance, Clifford Brooke, director, made sure of a first night success. The players were ideally cast.

Almost on the heels of the regular season, rapidly departing, the National Theater Players have nothing to fear, even though some soul—steeped in iniquity—should in all maliciousness seek to establish odious comparison with even the best of road talent. They are better by far than most of their rivals.

"The Alarm Clock" ticked with the precision of Swiss mechanism, though forsooth, there was nothing mechanical in the playing of any of its parts. Coordination is the word

If anything, the players have imranything, the players have lim-proved over their work of last sea-son. Leneta Lane, the leading lady, more beautiful than ever, is by far a better actress. She has more fire, more verve, more vivaciousness, a decided flair for the flourish that makes for finished exits—to men-tion only one phase of her improved

So, really, he is not new—and he was well received by the old regulars last night, but the larger rounds of applause went, of course, to what might be termed the old stagers.

The fair Kathryn Givney, favorite of the favorites, came again into her own; which, of course, was nothing new—for the girl has a way with her. In fact, the entire way with her. In fact, the entire evening was given over not so much to a study of the play as to a sort of royal welcoming of the players— and this is as it should be. Romanie Callender was next to

Mis. Bether Market End Mark Teal and this is as it should be.

Romanie Callender was next to walk away with the laurel wreaths. Cast in only a small part, Mr. Callender came off with the nice touches that have made him such a valuable member of the organization; a particular twist of his own, an individuality that stands out in the group system.

Young William Phelps hivenile of last year, and Doroth densely ingenue, evoked their sit. At the plaudits. Though, in a very small bit, Miss Tierney went over well, and young Phelps more than got away with an ordinarliy thankless job, squeezing all the comedy out of a "hick role."

Of the newcomers, Mrs. Hibbard almost "ran away with the show," as the saying goes. With a fine reception in repertoire at Boston, she succeeded in knocking down the alleged high standing barriers of Washington. Along with her, Percy Winters, son of the famed dramatic critic, and once a directional standard of Representative and Mrs. Daniel E. Garrett, of Houston, Tex.

A comedy, the players strike their stride in a fast tempo that carries on, and on, and on, so that there is never a lagging moment and—marvels of marvels—not a miscue in the performance.

WARDMAN PLAY HIT WITH BIG AUDIENCE

Thomas Herbert Stock Company Goes Over Big in High Comedy of Marriage.

The Thomas Herbert Players again scored in a comedy last evening when the successfully produced Edward Paulton's three-act hit, "Her Temporary Husband," was shown before an enthusiastic audience—one of the largest of the season.

The play contains many clever lines, funny situations and a brand new idea. The story hinges around a woman's plan to marry a a ged husband from a home for incurables, who will shortly die and leave her free to marry the man she thinks she loves, one Clarence Topping. Her father's will specifies that if she marries Tanning the less harms will specifies that if she marries Topping she loses her money. Of course, there is no mention in the will of a second husband, and she thinks thus to outwit her dead father by making Topping her second husband after her "temporary" husband has conveniently died.

The play has been exceptionally well cast. Ruth Harrison as the husband-seeking wife, Blanch Ingram, is true to the part. Parker Fennelly as the temporary husband Fennelly as the temporary husband is his usual suave self. Ruth Russell as Kate, makes a most alluring nurse, and Ronald Savery as a young doctor adds to the mirth.

A plea for Girl Scout leaders wa made by Mrs. Charles R. Lindsey, jr., District commissioner of the Girl Scouts of America, from station WCAP last night during The Washington Post's radio hour. There are more than 900 Girl Scouts in Washington, Mrs. Lindsey said, and there would be more if leaders could be obtained for them. Describing a trip taken in 1924 for the purpose of making an economic study of Bessarabia, Mr. Van Norman said that it is about the size of South Carolina, supporting a population of approximately three and one-half million, the vast majority of whom are agriculturists and live on a great plain, a continuation of the "black lands" of the Ukraine of Russia. Fruits and grains are the principal crops, he added.

Was some noise and commercial when Mr. Bruce started, which caused Senator Means to remonstrate with the doorkeepers, but after the reading had progressed a complete silence few moments a complete silence enabled all tofollow his every word. When the senator quoted Gen. Andrews as stating that the bootleg industry now extended over the en tire country there was a straining of necks to see the reaction on the prohibition director's countenance. And when Mr. Bruce referred to prohibition as "a disastrous tragic failure, debasing human morals and discrediting human laws," eyes were turned in the direction of Wayne B. Attacking the idea of doing away altogether with liquor because it proved harmful to some persons. Senator Bruce contended that it might just as logically be decreed that motor cars be no longer used for pleasure because some are used for banditry or robbery. The illicit liquor industry brought about by prohibition thrives on attempted enrohibition thrives on attempted en forcement, just as cancer thrives upon the knife, Senator Bruce said. Getting down to figures, Senator Bruce proceeded to cite statistics with respect to the steady increase in arrests for drunkenness since prohibition, the constant increase in alcoholic deaths and cases of alco-holic insanity. There were 172,537 illicit stills operating in conven-tionally dry States last year, he

In Baltimore, he said, the contrary was the case. Before prohibition, the police did not hesitate to arrest intoxicated persons. Now, he said, the Baltimore police were as hostile to prohibition as the great majority of the people.

Notwithstanding efforts of the poisonous and nauseous for consumption, it was continuing to be imbibed. Senator Bruce said, and noonshine was now as ubiquitous as "the rays of the moon." The home-still, he said, would be made as common as the old-fashioned spinning wheel if prohibition con-tinued. The senator cited the case of a California grape grower who committed suicide when prohibition went into effect because he be-lieved himself ruined through the disappearance of the industry. Cali-Misappearance of the industry. Call fornia grapes, the senator said, command a price far greater than before prohibition.

Declaring that alcoholic deaths head trebled in New York and the health of citizens had been impaired by prohibition, Senator Bruce placed the blame on what he termed the "Caesar Borgia poison and filth which attempted enforcement caused to fill the bowels of the American people." Drinking among women had increased, he said, add-

Bruce was concluding references to cases where the coast guard had been found guilty of accepting bribes and indulging in corruption. "It's hardly worth while to declare that prosperity in the United States is due to prohibition." Sand the states is due to prohibition." Sand the states is due to prohibition." Sand the states is due to prohibition.

"No sane man would support legislation which he believed would make conditions worse. I can not imagine such a citizen. In fact, it is difficult to believe they could be much worse than they are today.

Edge Urges Modification. "I confidently assert if the Volstead act is modified up to the point of constitutional limitation, as is universally demanded, much of the universally demanded, much of the existing spirit of challenge and pro-test will be eliminated and viola-tion of the law substantially re-duced. The time has arrived for Congress to cease trying to find ex-

Congress to cease trying to find excuses to postpone modification or to refuse to meet this situation. The time has come for Congress to help find a legal way to do so."

Senator Edge's bill proposes that the law be amended so that beer and wine may be manufactured and sold provided they are not "intoxicating in fact." The courts have held, he said, that fruit juices which are not "intoxicating in fact" may be manufactured. But beer must remain less than one-half of 1 per cent of alcoholic content, he declared.

"The farmer with his grapes or

"The farmer with his grapes or apples can legally go the limit," said Senator Edge. "The industrial worker with his beer can go to jail." This was discrimination of an unwarranted kind, which would be done away with by his bill, said Senator Edge. To obviate the possibility of the return of the saloon in any form the bill provides that the light wines and beer "not intoxicating in fact" cannot be served where sold or drunk on the premises. The bill would not solve the prohibition problem entirely, he said, but would be a step in the right direction.

"This country was not a whisky consuming country was not a whisky consuming country before prohibi-tion. This contention is borne out by statements of representatives of the Antisaloon league itself. Sena-tor Dill, of Washington, in a radio speech made in February, stated '92 per cent of saloon business in the United States before prohibition was beer business.'"
"Speaking of saloons," Senator Edge continued, "I am not going to take the time today to reiterate what has been so many times proven, that while, of course, we have no legal saloons, we must have more places where illicit liquor is sold than we had saloons in former days or we would not have increased arrests for drunken-

When Senator Edge concluded, Mr. Codman took the stand to make a brief statement and to summor wet witnesses. But he had scarcely stated his name and the organiza-tions he represented before Senator Walsh wanted to know if he had written authority from these organ izations to represent them. This apparently aroused Senator Reed who deprecated the idea of seemingly challenging the witness before he began. But Mr. Walsh continued to ask pointed questions about the organizations and finally asked Mr. Codman if he would supply the com-mittee with a list of the names of those who made up the Association Against the Prohibition Amend-

Declaring further that deceit, tyranny, espionage, bribery and corruption had been made rampant, Senator Bruce said the prohibition bureau had become a national scandal, that thousands of prohibition agents and police had "soiled their hads with bribes."

"I consider today that diversion of industrial alcohol is the principal source or the backbone of the liquor supply," he added.

Senator Reed made notes and smiled broadly when it was brought out that the small squad of a few hundred men were all that were available to check the rum smuggling from the borders and the coast lines. The testimony of Gen. Andrews then dealt with arresting of violators and the general pointed out that it was not his policy to go after individual distributors.

"That is," said Senator Reed, "you do not arrest all the violators. Only the ones you pick out."

He held out his hands and soon they were mingling once more with the throng of skaters. Peggy's heart beat excitedly. It seemed as though, after all, there were a possibility that Mark might yet find his happiness with the woman he loved. At last she found herself amongst many of entreaty.

One moment there was only the rippling mirth of the merry-makers to be heard, the lively hum of talk and laughter—the next, across the lighthearted babble tore the grinding crash of splitting ice, shrieks and cries for help, while at the upper end of the lake was visible a confused huddle of boyish figures and a dark, ominous gash in the frozen surface of the water.

Patricia, standing on the bank talking to Mark Strown and drink-ing coffee, swung round in horror. She saw the skaters nearest to the scene of the catastrophe surge forward, then stop and hesitate as they reached the zone of treach-erous ice. In the same instant, it seemed, a figure drew clear from at seemed, a ngure drew clear from amongst them, flying ahead like the wind, regardless of the rotten surface * * * a tall, loose-limbed flgure. * * "Kerry!" "You can't go there! It isn't safe. * * * Someone's bringing a rope and ladder. They'll have them out in a jiffy."

She struggled in the unknown's

At the same time, it was her honest belief that Patricia would be utterly miserable in the environment he proposed to give her. Otherwise, not even for her brother's sake, would she have meddled quite so flagrantly.

The evening wore on. People went in ond out of the supper tent, allaying with the medley of good things provided by the Strangways chef the pangs of a really sharp hunger born of exercise in the keen night air, the band still played with unflagging enthusiasm, and the fun rose fast and furious. JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST-THE SMART MAN.

Men called him smart. His mind was keen and clever, In business matters no one fooled

His judgment never faltered. He could see What contracts were and what they ought to be.

He knew land values, and what price to pay, what he'd sell for at some future day.

But little time or patience this man For any plan or scheme he knew

No man could fool him into loss of wealth,
But pleasure tricked him into feeble health.

With money he was sharp and clear and cool, But with himself he often played

He'd bout with folly and he'd dice with shame And let dishonor trifle with his coold make money. There his genius ran, But it takes more than that to make

In business he was clever; but give

We look on rice as a product very much a part of the far East—of the Philippines and of India—and it is true that in ages past the peoples of these remote corners of the earth have been the chief producers and consumers of the cereal, but the use of rice as a food is a custom that has been handed down to us for generation upon generation. It seems to be proved that the wide valley of the River Euphrates was particularly adapted to the cultivaparticularly adapted to the cultiva-tion of this food and that rice was not an uncommon crop in that country as much as 400 years before Christ.

Rice, as we all know, requires low, wet land for its success. If sufficient water does not abound irrigation must supply the lack. Thus it came about that the people of the far lands in the long ago drew close to the low areas, where rice could easily be grown, made rice their chief food, and the countryside round about the rice fields their home. The vicinities surrounding the rice fields became overpopulated, but rice growing became one of the chief occupations of the land, and is to this day.

New Inventions Aid Air Pilots in Fogs

London, April 5 (By A. P.) —By means of new inventions air pilots are able to steer safely to a given point in the thickest fog, Flight Lieut. H. Cooch has informed the Royal Aeronautical society. By means of delicate instruments in the cockpit a pilot is kept automatically informed when he is within 1,500 feet of the ground, and the loss of every foot of height as he descends is also indicated.

Other instruments show the aviator just what part of the aeronatom he is over, after he has arrived in the vicinity of his destination, so that he may land in safety, though he may not be able to see the ground until he has actually alighted. London, April 5 (By A. P.).—By

Mormons Advised Not to Give Teas

Salt Lake City, Utah, April 5 (By A. P.) .- A warning against the tendency of modern Mormons to stray from the path of orthodoxy was sounded by Heber J. Grant, president of the Church of Jesus Christ of Later Day Saints, in opening the ninety-sixth annual conference of the religious sect here.

President Grant admonished all Mormons not to give afternoon teas.

The rules of the church disapprove the drinking of coffee and tea.

"I have been very myed grieved."

"I have been very much grieved when walking along the streets to note the immodest dress that womenfolk wear," said President Grant. "Our daughters, our mothers and even our grandmothers have adouted coefumes, which do have adopted costumes which do not hold in consideration the sacredness of the human body."

14 Women Held Up While Playing Poker

Questions and Answers on the American Rubber Supply and Automobile Tires

A-The only important source of rubber for all the world is the rubber plantations in the Far Eastern posssions of Great Britain and Holland.

Q—Is America represented among the Far Eastern rubber planters?

A-Yes, the largest of all these Far Eastern plantations is owned and operated by the UNITED STATES RUB-BER COMPANY.

Q-Do the United States Rubber Plantations produce any considerable quantity of rubber?

A-Yes, they produced 20,000,000 lbs. of rubber in 1925, and in the next few years the output will be increased about 75%.

Q—Then the growing of rubber by Americans for Americans is not a new thing?

A-No. As far back as 1903, the United States Rubber Company formed the conviction that it should own and operate rubber plantations in proportion to its requirements of crude rubber. In 1909, this Company acquired their vast tracts of ideal rubber growing land in Sumatra and Malaya. The roads, and motor roads were built, and fine young rubber seedlings were planted, cultivated and brought into Q-How large are the U. S. Rubber Plantations today?

A-The United States Rubber Plantations now comprise about 136,000 acres, with over 7,000,000 rubber trees, sixty miles of narrow-gauge railway, and 200 miles of motor roads. They give employment to 20,000 people.

Q-What does all this mean to me as a buyer and user of United States Tires?

A-The United States Rubber Plantations and their results have brought many benefits to every user of U.S. Rubber products of all kinds. For

1. LATEX-TREATED WEB CORD, one of the outstanding major improvements in tire-building, announced by this Company in 1922.

2. SPRAYED RUBBER, the new standard of purity in crude rubber, of direct benefit to every user of any U. S. Rubber product.

3. In Addition, during the past 17 years, VI.S. Rubber Plantation Expert Convertiducted thousands of such in financing bes into improving of the capital strong the rubber trees ous high rate do of selecting rubber trees attaching ing and budding, of soil, of planting, of fertu. tivating and tending the trees " almost revolutionized rubber gi ing. The Company's plantation headquarters at Kisaran are recognized as the center of scientific rubber culture, and as such are visited by rubber planters from all over the East.

Q-What is Latex-treated Web Cord?

A-This is new cord structure for cord tires, combining maximum strength with maximum flexibility. Ques-TIONS and ANSWERS on LATEX-TREATED WEB CORD will be published

Q-What is Sprayed Rubber?

A-Sprayed Rubber is the new pure rubber. It is free from both acid and smoke. Ouestions and Answers on SPRAYED RUBBER will also be published at an early date.

Q-Will America ever be reasonably inde-pendent in its rubber supply?

A-Probably so, in the course of time. For instance, the U.S. Rubber Plantations will probably yield 15 per cent more rubber in 1926 than in the past year. Every year more rubber trees come into production; and as trees grow older, they yield more abundantly. It takes from 5 to 7 years from the clearing of the ground to bring a rubber plantation into bearing. For several years to come, the U.S. Rubber Plantations will be the only important American-owned source of rubber.

During 1926, the makers of United States Tires will publish what they hope will prove the most helpful series of advertisements on tires ever printed. •(2) Conventional advertising forms and statements will be discarded. In their place direct questions such as any motorist might ask about United States Tires will be specifically answered. They will be questions that have passed in and out of your mind, no doubt, ever since you have been a car owner. 143 No one will be able to read this series, either in whole or part, without knowing more about rubber and tires than he ever knew before. *151 Do not miss reading the U.S. TIRE advertisements in newspapers and magazines from now on. -161 They are for the benefit of every car owner, whether he rides on United States Tires or other makes.

Calling of Loans Helped Force Stock Prices Down

the withdrawal of funds for the spring trade financing.

The condition of the New York bank statement has a definite relation to the trend of the stock market. Deposits have fallen over $200,000,000 during the first quarter. The total loans have not declined much because commercial credit has increased while credit to brokers has been curtailed.

The calling of loans by the banks has been a factor in forcing security prices downward. The pressure of short selling has been responsible for carrying prices below

First Mortgage Sinking Fund Gold Bonds, Series A, 61/2%

Due March 1, 1941

The Corporation agrees to pay interest without deduction for any normal Federal income tax not exceeding 2 per cent, which the Corporation or the trustee may be required or permitted to pay at the source, and to reimburse the holders of these bonds, if requested within 60 days after payment for the California, Connecticut and Pennsylvania tax, not exceeding 4 mills, the Maryland tax, not exceeding 4 1-2 mills, the District of Columbia tax, not exceeding 5 mills and for the Massachusetts income tax on the interest not exceeding 6 per cent of such interest per annum.

The following information is taken from official sources:

Business and Properties: The Consolidated Cement Corporation was recently formed under the laws of Delaware for the purpose of owning and operating plants engaged in the manufacture of Portland Cement. The Corporation is about to acquire the business and assets of The Peninsular Portland Cement Company, The Fredonia Portland Cement Company and The Great Western Portland Cement Company. These companies own and operate plants of modern design located at Cement City, Michigan and Fredonia and Mildred, Kansas and constitute well established and successful operating units.

These plants are exceptionally well located with respect to the markets for the sale of their products and are close to abundant supplies of raw material of high quality. The combined output for the plants in 1925 was over 2,566,000 barrels. The raw material deposits of the above properties are more than sufficient to meet the requirements of these plants for the next fifty years. With the addition of new kilns and other equipment now installed the combined capacity of the three plants will be in excess of 3,000,000 barrels.

Security: These bonds, in the opinion of counsel, will be secured by direct First Mortgage on the entire fixed property of the Corporation now owned or hereafter acquired subject to purchase money liens or underlying liens, if any, on hereafter acquired property. Additional bonds may only be issued under conservative restrictions, as provided in the Trust Indenture.

Earnings: The combined net income of the properties to be owned by the Consolidated Cement Corporation has been determined by Messrs. Arthur Andersen & Co. from their audits of The Fredonia Portland Cement Company and The Peninsular Portland Cement Company and the audit of The Great Western Portland Cement Company by Messrs. Smith, Lunsford & Wright for the years prior to 1925, and by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co. for the year 1925. For the three years ended December 31, 1925, the combined production capacity and audited net sales and net income of the properties to be presently acquired were:

Net Sales Depreciation, etc. $ 837,282 1,707,393 $2,997,538 1923 3,441,052 1924 2,566,000 3,779,734 1.192.687

Net income for 1925 as shown above was equal to over 4½ times the annual interest requirement of this issue of Series A Bonds. Net earnings after depletion, depreciation and Federal Taxes, for the year ended December 31, 1925, were $899,921 or about 31/2 times the annual interest requirement of this issue of Assets: Consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 1925, prepared by Messrs. Arthur Andersen & Co., on the basis of the audits referred to above and adjusted to give effect to the present financing and appraisal of plant assets by The American Appraisal Company, shows net tangible assets having a value of $7,305,680. Consolidated net current assets as shown in said balance sheet, amount to $1,301,798. Current assets are about 51/4 times current liabilities.

Sinking Fund: The Indenture will provide for a minimum sinking fund for the retirement of Series A Bonds of $75,000 per annum, payable semi-annually commencing January 1, 1927. In addition the Corporation will covenant to set aside annually, as an additional sinking fund to purchase and retire Series A Bonds, a sum equivalent to the amount by which 20% of the net income of the Corporation, after depreciation, depletion, taxes, interest and preferred dividends, as provided in the Indenture, for the preceding fiscal year, shall exceed the sum of $75,000, subject, however, to allocations of portions of such additional sinking fund to bonds of other series, as provided in the Indenture. It is estimated that the operation of this fund will retire approximately 75% of this issue of Series A Bonds by maturity.

Management: While each plant retains all of the advantages of local operation and of a complete local organization, the Corporation will be under the direct supervision of the Cowham Engineering Company, thus bringing to the Corporation the added benefits of specialized engineering, management and sales assistance of a character seldom available to a single operating unit. Cowham Engineering Company (of Chicago) is the foremost engineering and management company specializing exclusively in cement plants. Mr. John L. Senlor, President of this organization, will also be President of the Consolidated Cement Corporation, assuring the Corporation experienced management of unusual character.

issue is a fundamental factor in determining the soundness of the bonds. For example, an office building should be in a section of a city where there is a real demand for space of the type the building has to offer. It should be so located that its tenants can easily reach it and their customers can easily find it. It should have plenty of sunlight and protection against loss of this advantage through the erection of other structures.

RECENTLY we underwrote an $850,000 issue of RECENTLY we underwrote an $850,000 issue of First Mortgage 6½% Leasehold Bonds on the 41st Street and 7th Avenue Building in New York City. Hundreds of Miller customers, recognizing the advantageous location of the security for this issue, purchased these bonds in $1000, $500 and $100 denominations. They appreciated the soundness of locating an office building one block south of Times Square-midway between two great railroad Times Square—midway between two great railroad terminals and convenient to the leading hotels. They saw the advantages of subway connection to all parts of the city and of a corner where the all parts of the city and of a corner where the offices will always have plenty of daylight. And the income from this building has demonstrated the wisdom of its location. Before the building was completed, the owner had signed leases from tenants at rentals sufficient to cover all operating expenses, including the interest on the bond issue.

Creating Good Investments Location is but one important factor in determining what constitutes a good real estate first mort-gage bond. All the elements that contribute to the soundness of a lond issue are fully explained in the booklet, "Creating Good Investments."

Convertible Gold Bonds 51/2% Series Due 1946

Dated April 1, 1926

Due April 1, 1946

Interest payable April 1 and October 1 at the office of Harris, Forbes & Company in New York City, at the office of Harris, Forbes & Co., Inc., in Boston, or at the office of Harris Trust & Savings Bank, Chicago. Callable at 105 and interest to and including March 1, 1931, and thereafter at a premium of 1½% for each five year period or fraction thereof to maturity. Coupon Bonds of $1,000 and $500 denominations, registerable as to principal only, and fully registered Bonds of $1,000 and authorized multiples, interchangeable. National Bank of Commerce in New York, Trustee.

Convertible into Preferred Stock of Associated Gas and Electric Company, $6 Dividend Series, at the rate of 11 shares for each $1,000 Bond TAX PROVISIONS: The Company will agree to pay interest without deduction for any Federal Income Tax not exceeding 2% per annum which the Company or the Trustee may be required or permitted to pay thereon or deduct therefrom, and to reimburse the holders of these Bonds upon application within 60 days after payment for the Pennsylvania and Connecticut Four Mills Taxes and for the Massachusetts Income Tax on the interest not exceeding 6% of such interest per annum.

The following information has been summarized by Mr. J. I. Mange, President of Associated Electric Company, from his letter to us, copies of which will be furnished on request:

Associated Electric Company will control an important group of public utility properties serving a population of 1,750,000 in New York, Pennsylvania, Maine, New Hampshite, Connecticut, Kentucky, Tennessee, Indiana and the Philippine Islands. During. 1925 over 75% of the consolidated gross operating revenue was derived from electric light and power operations. Associated Electric Company is controlled by Associated Gas and Electric Company, one of the large public utility holding companies in the United States.

The Indenture under which the Convertible Gold Bonds are to be issued is designed to provide a sound and permanent medium for major funded debt operations in financing the future development of the Associated Gas and Electric System and constitutes the first step in the simplification of the capital structure of this group of properties. The major portion of the proceeds of the present issue is to be used to retire various high rate securities, thus effecting a substantial saving in annual interest, dividend and sinking fund charges. The Indenture will contain certain provisions for its modification in certain respects, with the assent of the holders of not less than 85 per cent of the outstanding Bonds.

Capitalization

Upon completion of the present financing the Associated Electric Company will have outstanding, including all stocks and bonds of subsidiary companies held by the public-

Earnings

Consolidated earnings of the companies to be included in the Associated Electric group for the twelve months ended January 31, 1926, as compiled by Messrs. Haskins & Sells, Certified Public Accountants, and annual interest and dividend charges on securities to be held by the public upon completion of this financing:

Gross Earnings, including $948,965 interest during construction and $594,717 Annual Income from Investments$20,815,122 Operating Expenses, including maintenance and amounts applicable to subsidiaries' minority common stocks..... Net Earnings before Provision for Replacements, etc. $10,546,674 Annual Interest and Dividend Charges on: Convertible Gold Bonds (this issue)......$3,575,000

Consolidated Net Earnings as Above are Over Twice the Above Charges

Properties under construction or placed in operation since January 1, 1925, represent an investment of over $17,000,000, from which only partial benefits are reflected in the above statement. The operation of such properties has resulted in a substantial increase in earning power and current gross earnings computed as above are at the rate of over $21,750,000 per annum.

Appraisals have been made by independent engineers of all operating properties in the Associated Electric group. The reproduction cost of these properties as shown by such appraisals plus net capital additions to December 31, 1925, together with investments in securities of affiliated companies, is very largely in excess of the aggregate amount of these Bonds and all subsidiaries' bonds and preferred stocks to be held by the public upon completion of this financing.

opening that the merger deal between the California Petroleum Corporation and the Texas Co. had been called off. Accordingly they and succeeded in hammering prices down from 1 to more than 2 points in that group.

Other industrials were similarly affected to the extent of 3 points in a few instances. However, when it became known that loans were not being generally called and that the supply of funds was ample, the speculative situation assumed a different appearance. The selling movement dried up, and buying orders began to predominate.

A persistent demand for public utility stocks bothered the bears and caused a good many to buy back "short" stocks, with the result that good gains were registered by Columbia Gas, Standard Gas, American and Foreign Power, Consolidated Gas, and other issues in that section of the list. The pivotal stocks like United States Steel common, Allied Chemical, General Electric and General Motors turned strong and good buying was done also in the railroad list. News that American Beet Sugar had omitted its common dividend failed to affect the market.

The last drive against the rails was engineered by bearish traders and resulted in the enlargement of the short interest rather than in liquidation of "long" accounts. Railroad traffic was maintained at a high level all through March and promised to continue heavy this month. Earnings, affected somewhat in the winter months by bad weather, are likely to reflect better; the big traffic movement.

Specifically buying in St. Paul was influenced by increasing confidence that the I. C. C. investigation colorado & Southern.

New York, April 5.—An upward trend of prices, probably reflecting completion of the drastic liquidation movement experienced during March. attended resumption of trading on the stock exchange after the Easter holidey. Advances of a point or two were scored by numerous stocks and in a few cases shares, for special reasons, rose from 3 to 6 points. Instances of lowering values were few and far between.

Trading was in small volume, compared with recent seessions, however, the turnover just exceeding 1,125,000 shares.

An easier turn in the call money market which, although definitely foreshadowed, was not expected so early in the week because the clearing house banks had reported a substantial deficit in reserved last Saturday, proved helpful. Technical conditions also were believed to favor the buying side. While short covering was active last week, the still outstanding short interest was said to be abnormally large.

The bears made a demonstration against the market in the early trading. They had figured that the banks would call loans today and make good the $34,100,000 defict they had reported. Another development which they counted upon to promote their interest was the announcement shortly after the banks would call loans today and make good the $34,100,000 defict they had reported. Specifically buying in St. Paul was influenced by increasing confidence that the I. C. C. investigation would not reveal anything detrimental to the reorganization plan. Representatives of the reorganizing bodies will be examined here by the commission this week.

Call money renewed at 4½ per cent and soon thereafter was reduced to 4 per cent. Bankers reported that money was flowing back from the interior.

With a holiday observed abroad, the foreign exchange market here was quiet. French francs gained 4 points, however, and Belgian francs 7 points.

CURB MARKET REVIEW.

New York, April 5 (By A. P.).—
Some irregularity developed in today's curb market, but the main trend was again upward. A jump of about 7 points in Continental Baking A, bringing it over 50 points above last week's low figure, was one of the outstanding features of the session.
Trading was relatively light.
Oils failed to make much response to higher gasoline prices in Eastern territory. Vacuum closed a point lower at 99½, and most of the other active issues showed fractional changes. Abandonment of the proposed merger of two large independent companies may have acted as a restraining influence.
Public utilities presented several strong spots. American Light & Traction was the leader, soaring 14½ points, to 218, largely on odd lot transactions. American Power & Light advanced 2½ points, to 55, and Engineers Public Service and United Light & Power each closed about a point higher. Electric Investors was heavy.

Backing and filling movements characterized the general list, net gains of a point or more in such issues as Land Company for Florida, Foundation Company Foreign, Fox
Theaters A and Gillette Safety Razor being counteracted by corresponding losses in Electric Refrigeration,

New York, April 5 (By A. P.).

The Walker group of stockholders of the Joliet & Chicago railroad, the leased line, which is one of the mainstays of the Chicago & Alton mainstays of the control of the road at the annual meeting today and strengthened their position by reelecting their list of officers headed by Joseph Walker, president, and capturing one more place on the directorate through the election of Samuel S. Walker. Intense interest in the election was shown by the greatest representation of stock in the 70 years of the company's the greatest representation of stock in the 70 years of the company's history, 12,415 shares having been voted out of a total of 15,000. Mr. Walker was supported by holders of 7,711 shares.

The preliminary statement of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul for 1925 shows a deficit of $3,934,611 after taxes and all charges, against a deficit of $1,868,606 in 1924. Net operating income was $16,873.636, against $18,972,106 the year before to $162,020,693 from $158,366. 458.

Pig iron prices in the South are holding at the base of $22 a ton, Birmingham. Sales have been made covering about 60 per cent of the probable output of the current quarter. Cast iron pressure pipe makers, the most active users of iron in the district, are running near capacity. Pending inquiry is light in the New York market. Aggregate tonnage booked last week, about 10,000 tons, was half of the tonnage the week before.

Syracuse at Hilltop; Maryland Plays Lehigh.

O'Reilly in Charge at Georgetown; Gillespie to Hurl.

COACH JOHN D. O'REILLY, fresh from the triumphant jaunt to Texas with his track team, will be on hand this afternoon to watch his Georgetown baseball team cavort for the first time this year against a college opponent The Hilltoppers' opponent this afternoon is Syracuse, and it will mark the first appearance of the Orangemen at the Hilltop in a good many years. While Georgetown is wing relations with Syracuse ach Shipley's Old Liners will be meeting Lehigh at College Park.

In former years Syracuse used to give Georgetown plenty of opposition, and the games between the wo were always hard fought and interesting. And there is nothing to indicate that the visitors from the Empire State will not be just as tough to beat today as they ever were. In the few games it has closed to be a total to the state of the sta already played on its Southern trip Syracuse has shown much strength nd will be out to cop the long end and will be out to cop the long end of the verdict.

Naturally the Blue and Gray players will be out to knock this hope into a cocked hat, not only because they want to win, but because they want to show Coach O'Reilly how well they have improved since he last saw them.
Unless O'Reilly makes a last-minute change in his pitching selection Gillespie undoubtedly will do the hurling. In his last game Gillespie went the full route of twelve innings against Temple and seemed to improve with each succeeding frame. He should be in fine shape today, having held a left met.

today, having had a long rest.
After the drubbing Maryland received from Yale last week Coach Shipley undoubtedly is uncertain ust who he will start against Le-high. It is more than likely that Nihiser will get the assignment with Spinney doing the receiving.

Birmingham. April 5. HERE is decided boom through the barnstorm circuit in the stock of the New York Yankees. The lean weeks of St. Petersburg are apparently far behind and the minions of Col. Ruppert are goose-stepping north in exceedingly impressive fashion.
The followers of Huggins have taken so many kicks at the Brooklyn Dodgers that the observers are beginning to be servers are beginning to be-lieve the Yankee manager has a sharp toe even if he lacks the mailed fist.

The general sentiment among the veterans on the Washing-ton ball club is that the New York team has got its bearings and is now headed somewhere with considerable definiteness, although the exact destination may as yet be unknown. Most ball players, more particularly those on the pay roll of Clark Griffith, are firmly convinced that the success of the Yankees is thoroughly bound up with the success of the turbulent boy of baseball, Babe Ruth. They chart the course of the Vankees this season by ball players, more particularly of the Yankees this season by the fact that Babe Ruth has his mind on his business and is be-ginning to hit the ball over the Beating the Yankees, many of the Nationals think, is going to be the task ahead of the Washington team this year, for despite the fact that Philadelphia was the contending club last year it is hard to find a man on the club who thinks that the Athletics are going to be any tougher than they were a year ago. The general belief, in fact.

is that the task will not be as hard. There is, however, con-siderable respect for the Yankees, with Babe Ruth setting the pace. Ball players are convinced that he is the mainspring of the team, and they agree with some of the who feel that Miller Huggins is a slight part of the driving force that propels the Yankees onward in the baseball race.

The turnstiles of baseball will react to Babe Ruth, if he is himself again. Regardless of the standing of the New York club, the crash of the Babe's bat against the ball will be a bugle call that the cash customer will hear, and Col. Ruppert will get a few more dividends as the result of the free use of his fountain pen and check book.

Gonzaga Nine Catholic U. Scores Five Runs in Ninth Inning to Triumph Over Yale, 5-4

Quinn, Frager, Adams Adams and Pinch Hitter Smith Fill Hero Giants and Athletics Roles in Melodramatic Finish of Contest. "Battle" Byrnes Hurls Steadily.

When Foley, the first Cardinal hitter in the ninth, was called out on strikes, the task of overhauling the Elis looked almost hopeless. but Garvin, next up, drew a walk and Mayer followed with a crashing sin-gle over second. But even then there was little hope that that 4-run lead could be wiped out. However, Ignace brought the stands up cheering madly when he singled past third, scoring Garvin.

S ENSING the situation, Charley Moran, the C. U. coach, looked up and down the bench for a pinch hitter and selected Smith to hit for Byrnes. And when Smith took the first two strikes hearts were the first two strikes hearts were sinking, but they came right up with a bang when Smith scored his two mates with a long dou-ble to right field.

Doyle then was sent in to run for Smith. Keale and Bailey, the next two hitters, both drew bases and balls and Babe Adams, who had already crashed out two hits, was coming up.

Despite the wildness of Holabird, Coach Joe Wood, of Yale, refused to derrick him. The Yale hurler's first two pitches to Adams were strikes, one called and one fouled. The next was a ball and then Adams proved the man of the hour when he lined the apple to left and Doyle and Keale raced home with the tying and winning runs.

T'S an old, old story, practically as old as the game itself, yet it was everything in the baseball game between Yale and Catholic university yesterday afternoon. There is hardly a fan in the country who has not heard that "a team that won't be beaten can't be beaten;" and that is exactly what happened yesterday.

Although Coach Guyon was forced to call upon three of his slabmen in turning in a shoutout game, they performed in excellent style. THE Cardinals squandered chances to score in the than five times. Men were push-ed around as fur as second, and even sometimes to third, only to die there when the necessary bingle was lacking.

Two snappy double plays helped Holabird out of holes in the first and fourth, but the punch was lacking on other occasions. Yale earned its run in the fourth,

GOLDEN BILLOWS, FAVORITE, TAKES BENNING PURSE

Titina Beats Juveniles In First

Whitney 2-Year-Olds Suffer Inaugural Defeat at Bowie.

Maiben, on Welshot, Captures Third in Stretch Drive.

By J. B. SNODGRASS.

OLDEN BILLOWS made goo OLDEN BILLOWS made good in the Benning purse, featured on the Bowie card yesterday. The fleet mare of F. A. Tansor had to be at her best to beat the improved War Man. Commissioner was third. The winner was the favorite, and several other favorites won during the afternoon, which was the most summerlike of the meeting. The crowd was almost as large as any of this meeting.

The track was faster than it had yet been, and all these things com-bined, and on Monday, at that, which day is usually a finx to racing, made the sport a little out of the ordinary.

Willie Munden, under contract to ride for Commander J. K. L. Ross, beginning at Havre de Grace, made his debut at the Bowie track today, and after his heralded feats at Tia Juana, his work in the sad at ha Juan, his work in the sad-dle was closely watched, but it was not until his third mount, that in the fifth race, that he was able to land a winner. Munden was on Commissioner in the Benning purse and he did not get away very well with a horse that was well regarded.

OMMISSIONER was flatfooted when the barrier rose, and went away behind the field. Munden whipped his mount in an attempt to gain at the wrong part of the race the ground he had lost at the

The result was that commis sioner was a tired horse before the stretch was reached, while Golden Billows galloped home a length and a half in front of War Man, which had been setting all the pace until the head of the stretch was reached.

At this point little Tammara moved into the lead with Golden Billows and it was all over for the others. At the end Commissioner was third, a half length behind War Man. The time was 1:47 1-5 for a mile and 70 yards.

Golden Billows was the best in the race at this time, but she also profited by a good ride. She was favorite at 3 to 2.

Ral Parr showed a good filly in the first race for 2-year-olds in Titina, and incidentally she was the instrument for throwing a wrench into Harry Payne Whitney's winning streak with his fashionablybred juveniles, this marking the first defeat of this stable in juvenile events at this track.

Harvey rode Titina and caught Mijagado, another first starter, in Mijagado, another first starter, in the first quarter, and though winning from that peculiarly named filly, could only get the decision by a head, and Witchery, one of the Whitney pair, was only a head behind the second one, thus adding to the score of close finishes at Bowle.

Welshot, which formerly ran under the colors of Thomas Clyde, of the Clyde Steamship Line, but apper "de in the third race in the name of A. G. Weston, engaged in the third close finish of the day by beat third close missi of the day by beating Adieu a head, with Green Blazes third. H. G. Bedwell's Forestar cantered into the lead, which he held for some distance, when Maiben brought Welshot to the front. In the stretch began a terrific bat tle between Welshot and Adleu, which was won by the tiring Wel-shot, greatly assisted by Maiben.

MUNDEN brought Toyland home first in the fifth race, winning easthe favorite and seemed to outclass the field. Basquaise was good enough to beat Haze for place, the Bedwell filly losing the lead after scattering hope among her backers.

Dancing Fool was the winner of the sixth race, Levoy second and Drumbeat third. This was another case of racetracks for horses and horses for racetracks. Dancing Fool always was partial to the Bowie track, and he beat horses in Bowle track, and he beat horses in this race that on another track might run away from him.

Spugs took the seventh race from Gunny Sack, with Camouflage third. Camouflage has run three races in four days and is entered again tomorrow. He likes this track, but has lost his old time cunning. He is an 11-yea.—old son of Star Shoot, and has won many races in Maryland at long odds.

Snodgrass: Selections

today's card at Bowie, and the Swenke organization seems likely to score again with EVER-GLADE and MUNGO, as that sta-ble's entry, and McAtee riding EVERGLADE. This horse beat Golden Billows on Friday last, and there is nothing in this race which could perform that feat except EVERGLADE.

MUNGO will help, and might be the part of the entry chosen to win. He is dropped far below the class in which he ran in the Bowie inaugural, but he did not do much in that race. H. G. Bedwell's KANDUIT is the best of the others. He ran third to Ever-glade in that horse's winning race Friday, and looks improved over last year. LEONARD G. is a smart performer at times and is picked to get third money if one of the Swenke entry drops out.

The first race is for 2-year-olds WANDERING TIMES and SWEEP-ING ANN appear much the best of those which have run, and although the Bean filly, the first mentioned, did not run up to her form the other day, she seems to have the best of it. LONG VIEW, in the string of R. T. Wilson, should get part of the purse. THE WIRE, by The Porter, is an unknown quantity, having never started, but is said to have worked fast.

The second race is for 3-year-old maidens, and consequently a scramble among mere platers may be expected. COLUMBIA II, which ran third to Cliff last week, seems the the Bean filly, the first mentioned third to Cliff last week, seems the best prospect in the uncertain tast of trying to select a winner from the large field. She showed som the large field. She showed some form last year, and probably will be the favorite at post time. McTaggart will have the mount. SWEPT will be the contender. Her New Orleans form was good. She was in the money several times. SENATE may improve enough to take third.

TRY AGAIN is the pick for the third race. Her race against Gov. Smith showed she was ready for her best effort Leyland will have the mount. POOR SPORT will only have to run back to his last race to be the contender. SILVER-MIRE may show. All are ordinary.

A good claiming field goes in the fourth race. ST. VALENTINE should repeat. He will race under a new stable today, having been claimed from Le Conferb by W. C. new stable today, having been claimed from J. E. Griffith by W. C.

claimed from J. E. Griffith by W. C. Owens after his runaway victory last week, his first start since last year. He is a good horse to be in a claiming race. He beat Flying Cloud and Taps last year and seems to be of stake quality. LEATHER-WOOD looks like the contender, but the large field will make this a mere guess, for LEATHER-WOOD is inconsistent. However, horses must be selected on their best races, not on their worst. MUNGO has a Midway Purse. Start with mot on their worse. Winner, ch. c (3) by chance to be in the money. So have CAREFREE and TOD RENE-

ISLAND FAIRY'S last race points to her as a standout in the sixth event. She will have SILENE and GRAND BEY to beat, the records indicate. SILENE'S races at Jefferson Park were exceptionally good, and place is a probable outcome for her. KINK may be closer than here rated.

DUCKLING should improve in than here rated.

DUCKLING should improve in the seventh. Her race here was not up to her Miami form. CA-MOUFLAGE and BROTHERLY LOVE look best of the others.

JIMSON may improve.

The stakes at Havre de Grace, which closed Saturday, have entries which will figure in the Preakness and the Derby, as well as the other stellar stakes of the year. Mr. Pending said yesterday that Canter had been entered in the handicaps at that point. He is that Canter had been entered in the handicaps at that point. He is Maryland's best 3-year-old. The Glen Riddle farm's Man o' War colts also have been nominated liberally.

There will be several foreign horses under colors at Havre de Grace, among them fourteen that Henry McDaniel is training for the Laurel Park stud.

Fact-or Fable? ONCE upon a time, a cigar was made superb in workmanship; of the finest in quality; mild yet distinctive in character. And thousands of smokers came to enjoy it.

That cigar was El Producto. Those thousands still enjoy it. And each year many thousands more come to El Producto for real enjoyment.

Why? Because El Producto, first, last, and all the time, represents true smoke quality-quality that has never varied; and never will.

CLOSE RACE IS PROMISED IN HIGH SCHOOL SERIES

Three Teams Stand Out In Race

Western Likely to Give Central, Tech Fight, Thinks Kelley.

Eastern Apparently Has Lost Its 1925 Winning Punch.

By MIKE KELLEY,

Central High School Coach. Central High School Coach.

Preseason forecasting of the interhigh baseball series, which gets under way on April 17, with Central and Tech due to resume their ancient rivalry, narrows the choice of the ultimate winder to either Western, Central or Pach.

Business, with practically the same line-up as last season, doesn't seem to possess the pitching or the ditting strength necessary to carry the team through to a title this

Yet the winning of an inter-scholastic championship by the Stenographers would come as a wel-come surprise to all local scholastic sport followers and would add con siderable interest to the interhigh school sport competition in Washington. It might also be just the tonic needed at the school to create to the deeded at the school to create a winning spirit.

Last year's champions, Eastern, will not be as strong this spring as a year ago. Their hitting strength, the main portion of which was furnished by Sheehy, Hamby and Burdine, is missing for 1926 and Burdine was the pitching ace for the league leading team from Capitol. league-leading team from Capitol

NLESS the team uncovers some previously unknown twirler, who is capable of stopping the opposition of Central, Western and Tech, Eastern can not be figured to have championship possibilities warranting placing it ahead of the three teams previously mentioned.

Tech, even though handicapped by the enforced absence of the coach throughout the training season, seems to believe that its team will come through in good style. doubt Tech will receive good pitching from Jett and Dulin, perhaps the equal of any staff in the series. Jett is a veteran from last year, while Dulin has enjoyed considerable success as a flinger on the sandlots. The question with the Tech team lies in the hitting strength of its members behind the brand of twirling it should receive.

Western looms up as a team possessing championship requisites in the form of a number of veterans from last year's squad whose hit-ting ability is pretty well known, backed by steadiness in the field and fair pitching. Stevens, Hilleary and Mitchell should furnish plenty of worry to any pitching staff, and Ahearn believes that in Brown, Batson and Edmunston he has three youths who should hold their own and provide the team with a satisfactory brand of box

Central is sure to be up with the leaders this season and will be represented by a team fully able to furnish stirring opposition to any rival. The infield has been strengthened by the addition of Simmons and Byng at short and first base, respectively, while Phipps, Duffy and Baker have been exhibiting a pretty good punch on the mound in the early practice games.

These three teams appear the class of the league this year and the writer looks to one of them to cop the title. Much will depend on the initial game between Central and Tech, as the loser of this struggle will not have much chance to make up lost ground in the short 10-game series.

A good comparison of the two teams may be had when Central meets Episcopal next week, as the Virginia outfit has a win over Tech to their credit.

THERE is one cross that Babe Ruth will have to carry in the minds of most ball players. They consider that he is responsible for the general movement among baseball magnates to eliminate all long-term contracts in favor of the standard one-year agreement.

Stanley Harris, it is true, convinced Clark Griffith that a three-year contract would be the proper thing to sign, but his case is an exception. Bill McKechnie, who won the flag in the National league and them the world championship must in the National league and then the world championship, must show Barney Dreyfus this year that he is worth keeping. The Pirate boss has only a one-year contract. Wilbert Robinson has made it plain that the Brooklyn club has dropped the two and three year agreements. Uncle Wilbert fought the fight most of the spring, and had some trouble getting Zach Wheat and Milton Stock in line. He stuck by his onein line. He stuck by his one-year gun, and won, however, so that the problem is probably settled on his team.

Babe Ruth put a damper on the long term contracts by the manner in which he filled the three-year agreement he signed with the Yankees. The Yankee slugger was riding high in the baseball world when he drew down $52,000 a year under a contract covering three twelvemonth periods. The king kleagle of klout lost considerable interest in his profession immediately thereafter.

POR two of the three years Ruth played little if any baseball. His playing was directed along other lines and into other channels. As the time approaches for a renewal of the agreement, the home run king is taking a more decided. king is taking a more decided interest in his business. But he is not going to be able to repay in this year for the days that he frittered away when the big money contract was of the agreement, the home runking is taking a more decided interest in his business. But he is not going to be able to repay in this year for the days that he frittered away when the big money contract was young.

This is the picture that the major magnates see now when a player talks of a long-time contract. They are afraid that the man who gets one wants to loaf in the early stages of the agreement and do his best only when the times draws near for a renewal.

Losses in the barnstorm circuit may not count in the standings, but they seem to be just as severe a drain on the players' dispositions.

By the time Louis Firpo has defeated Erminio Spalla a few more times the Italian champion ought not to mind it at all.

Score 9 Runs in Ninth to Even Series Count at 2-All.

ITH two men down, Jackson and Hartley hit through shortstop for singles. Wisner got one through Bluege on which Jackson scored while Goslin was fielding the ball. Groh forced the Giant pitcher at second for the third out.

Washington found the holes in washington found the noise in the Giant outfield in the third inning. Ruel opened by doubling down the left-field foul-line. Ogden struck out. Rice lifted a long fly to Meusel which the Giant fielder dropped, enabling Ruel to get to third and Rice to second. Harris singled through Jackson for two runs. Goslin drove a scorcher right over second base that Tyson let go through him for an error. Harris general and Gosco rulled up at third through him for an error. Harris scored and Goose pulled up at third. The latter scored on Joe Harris' infield out and Judge grounded to infield out and Judge grounded to Frisch.

Stanley Harris, who has been firting with the base paths in preparation for the opening of the season, got caught off first in the fifth and was run down.

Washington gave the home town fans a treat in the seventh by sending Stewart to second and Myer to short. Stewart formerly managed the local club and Myer played in the league at New Orleans.

McGraw sent Lindstrom in to bat for Wisner in the seventh and started his club on the road to another run. The Giant third baseman walked. Groh advanced him with a single. Frisch flied to Goslin. Ruether hit Young, filling the bases, with Meusel and Kelly to bat. Meusel lifted a sacrifice to deep center, scoring Lindstrom, and Kelly flied to right field.

TASHINGTON found ASHINGTON found Davies, the young left-hander sent to the box for the Giants in the ninth. He walked Judge as a starter. Bluege laid down a bunt and, when Hartley tried to catch Judge at second, both runners were safe.

Manager B. Myers, of the Ace A. Insects, is in the field seeking a pitcher and several other players to fill open positions. Candidates wishing a trial are requested to telephone him at Lincoln 9906.

The Sportswoman

By BOB MacDONALD,

General new Jears and rulned its record of 54 victories when they were defeated, 16 to 14, last night by the Washington Specials. Playing before an audience which packed the Central High school gymnasium, the two teams clashed in a game unmatched for speed and close situations, beautiful interceptions and many spectacular combination plays which culminated in clever goals. At times things were pretty badly roughed by Miss of the next shot that must be made. If there are woods on the left near woods on th things were pretty badly roughed up, and many personals were called by Miss Stockett, the referee, but the spirit of the players was game and friendly.

ELIZABETH TEW was the star, caging all of the Washington points, and Lelia Hudgins, the smallest player in the visiting line-up, cornered all the scoring honors for her team. The Florida players were probably a bit stale, as a result of their long trip, but they proved beyond a doubt that basketball is really played in their home State.

Of particular interest to seven out of ten men forward talk to those seven out of ten who, statistics show, smoke cigars regularly, or seek the solace of a good cigar every now and then.

Why is it that so many men are continually changing about from one cigar to another-collectively spending thousands of dollars each year in a vain search for a cigar that just meets their taste and fancy? Isn't it because they have not yet found a cigar of unvarying excellence, one made by a company whose buying resources are great enough to insure the same taste and flavor year in and year out.

Rob! Burns is a typical example of just such a cigar. For 67 years it has made millions of friends by its sweetness of taste, mildness and mellowness. It has held these friends through its unvarying excellence. And now, that tobacco from the finest Havana crop is being used, it is more than ever a true, steady-diet smoke.

Try Rob! Burns in any of its four gentlemanly shapes -Panatela, Staples, Perfecto or Invincible. You'll find that the sweetness and mellowness never vary.

BANKER SHOT TWICE BY NEGRO IN STREET

Easton Police Seek Assailant Who Fired Without Provocation.

Easton, Md., April 5.—Police are seeking a negro who, apparently without any provocation, last night shot Samuel Hambleton, assistant cashier of the Farmers & Merchants Bank of Easton. Mr. Hambleton had just put his car into his garage when he was accosted by a garage when he was accosted by a negro who asked him where the sheriff was. Hambleton replied that he knew nothing of the sheriff. The negro then pulled a pistol from his pocket and shot the banker through the right arm. "Hambleton cried out, "You have"

The negro calmly replied, "I know it; and I am going to shoot you again." He then shot the white man through the right side. Hambleton ran up the street to the Hotel Avon where he fell in the lobby. Dr. Jack Zerbee took him to the Emergency hospital and dressed the wounds, but failed to find either of the bullets. The doctor said he could not determine the seriousness of the wound until the bullets were

BONDS RESUME BRISK FORWARD MOVEMENT

Belgian and French Loans Advance Further; Domestic Issues Gain.

WEAK SPOTS ISOLATED

New York, April 5 (By A. P.).—
Bond prices resumed their upward movement with considerable vigor today, as foreign developments and local money market conditions continued to favor constructive operations. The hestitancy of traders and investors in following the upward trend on large scale purchases, however, resulted in a smaller volume of trading.

Another rally in Belgian obligations followed announcement that negotiations for an international loan recently interrupted would be resumed in London this week. French bonds also extended their recovery with numerous gains of a point or more scattered elsewhere through the foreign list.

Selective buying was still the rule New York, April 5 (By A. P.).

through the foreign list.
Selective buying was still the rule in the domestic division, where various railroads, public utility and industrial liens were quickly snapped up at higher prices. Many fractional advances were included in the broad upward movement with special days longents brighter about in the broad upward movement with special developments bringing about gains of 1 to 2 points in such issues as Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh 4½s, Manila Electric 7s, International Mercantile Marine 6s, Liggett & Myers 7s, Iowa Central 5s, Colorado Fuel 5s, Northern Pacific 4½s and Virginia-Carolina Chemical 7½ per cent certificates. The rise in marine bonds followed reports that British interests again were seeking control of the company, while the jump in Manila Electric 7s merely brought them up to the price at which they will be retired.

to the price at which they will be retired.

Among the isolated weak spots were Wilson & Co. convertible 7½ s and 6s, which fell about 4 and 10 points, respectively, after publication of the company's annual report showing little more than $4 earned on the $7 preferred shares.

The $65,000,000 issue of Associated Electric Co. 5½ per cent convertible bonds will be placed on the market tomorrow through a syndicate headed by Harris, Forbes & Co., at a price of 95½, to yield over 5.90 per cent.

Arrangements were said to be nearly completed for an early offering of a Peruvian loan, of which the first installment will be slightly less than $15,000,000 out of an eventual $30,000,000 total. White, Weld & Co. and Blythe, Witter & Co. will head the banking group.

MUCH OLD STREET PAVEMENT IN CITY. REPORT DECLARES

815,515 Square Yards, 30 or More Years Old, Found

COST TO REPLACE AREA,

Figures Prepared for Senate Appropriations Committee and Commissioners.

The District highway depart. ment has prepared a report for the Senate appropriation committee showing that there are 815,515 square yards of street pavement in Washington 30 or more years old, to replace which would cost $2,446,545.

This represents the extent to which the District is in arrears in the resurfacing of streets that have obsolete pavements, and the sum Congress would have to appropriate to bring the District up to date. Two stretches of pavement named in the report were laid 59 years ago and have not been renewed since. They are Grant place northwest between Ninth and Tenth streets, and De Sales street northwest from Seventeenth street to Connecticut avenue.

Of pavements 25 to 29 years old, there are 431.116 square yards, to resurface which would cost $1,293, 348. Between 21 and 24 years old there are 477,418 square yards, for renewal of which $1,432,254 would be required.

The Senate committee asked for information of this character when we appeared before it to urge lib-eral appropriations to maintain streets," said Maj. R. A. Wheeler, assistant to the engineer commis-sioner. "I said offhand that to treat all pavement 30 years old or more we would have to resurface between 650,000 and 800,000 square yards.

Investigation Shows More.

"Upon returning to the District building I had an investigation started to check up on what I had said. I found there was more old pavement than I thought. So the results were tabulated and pre-sented to the commissioners and the ommittee.

"In some cities the life of an as-"In some cities the life of an asphalt pavement is held to be 20 years, which means that they provide for renewing them at the end of that time. Here we hold its life to be 30 years. We have one piece of paving 45 years old, which we do not plan to resurface for a year or two yet. It is in good condition. We have a small percentage of road surfaces under 30 years of age that we have to renew. we have to renew.

we have to renew.

"Some of the members of Congress expressed the thought that we should renew every 20 years. This table shows that to bring us up to date according to our own standard will take $2,500,000 and to raise the standard to 20 years and wipe out arrears would take more than twice that sum."
